

The SOWERS

"For some years now," he replied simply.

He lingered. He was waiting for Steinmetz, who always rose to such emergencies, who understood secrets and how to secure them when they seemed already lost.

Catrina walked on in silence. She was not looking at the matter from his point of view at all.

"Of course," she said at length, "of course, Paul, I admire you for it im-

"You must not go in there," mently. It is just like you to go and do the thing quietly and say nothing about it; but, oh, you must go away from here. I—I—it is too horrible to think of your running such risks. Rather let them all die like this than that you mustn't do it. You mustn't!"

She spoke in English, hurriedly, with a little break in her voice which he did not understand.

"With ordinary precautions the risk is very small," he said practically.

"Yes. But do you take ordinary precautions? Are you sure you are all right now?"

She stopped. They were quite alone in the silent street of the stricken village. She looked up into his face. Her hands were running over the breast of the tattered coat he wore. It was lamentably obvious, even to him, that she loved him. In her anxiety she either did not know what she was doing or she did not care whether he knew or not.

"Are you sure—are you sure you have not taken it?" she whispered.

He walked on almost roughly.

"Oh, yes; quite," he said.

"I will not allow you to go into any more houses in Thors. I cannot—I will not! Oh, Paul, you don't know. If you do I will tell them all who you are, and—the government will stop you."

"What would be the good of that?" said Paul awkwardly.

"Of course," Catrina went on, with a sudden anger which surprised herself, "I cannot stop you from doing this at Osterno, though I think it is wicked, but I can prevent you from doing it here, and I certainly shall."

Paul shrugged his shoulders.

"As you like," he said. "I thought you cared more about the peasants."

"I do not care a jot about the peasants," she answered passionately, "as compared—It is you I am thinking about, not them. I think you are selfish and cruel to your friends."

"I did it after mature consideration," said Paul. "I tried paying another man, but he shirked his work and showed the white feather, so Steinmetz and I concluded that there was nothing to be done but do our dirty work ourselves."

"And that is why you have been so fond of Osterno the last two years?" she asked innocently.

"Yes," he answered, falling into the trap.

Catrina winced. One does not wince the less because the pain is expected.

"Only that?" she inquired.

Paul glanced at her.

"Yes," he answered quietly.

They walked on in silence for a few moments. Paul seemed tacitly to have given up the idea of visiting any more of the stricken cottages. They were going toward the long old house, which was called the castle more by courtesy than by right.

"How long are you going to stay in Osterno?" asked Catrina at length.

"About a fortnight. I cannot stay longer. I am going to be married."

Catrina stopped short. She stood for a moment looking at the ground with a sort of wonder in her eyes not pleasant to see. Then she walked on.

"I congratulate you," she said. "I only hope she will make you happy. She is beautiful, I suppose?"

"Yes," answered Paul simply.

The girl nodded her head.

"What is her name?"

"Etta Sydney Bamforth."

Catrina had evidently never heard the name before. It conveyed nothing to her. Womanlike, she went back to her first question.

"What is she like?"

Paul hesitated.

"Tall, I suppose?" suggested the stunted woman at his side.

"Yes."

"And graceful?"

"Yes."

"I think so—yes."

"You are not observant," said the girl in a singularly even and emotionless voice. "Perhaps you never noticed."

"Not particularly," answered Paul.

Catrina was unaware of the thought of murder that was in her own heart. Nevertheless, the desire—indefinite, shapeless—was there to kill this woman, who was tall and beautiful, whom Paul Alexis loved.

It must be remembered in extenuation that Catrina Lanovitch had lived nearly all her life in the province of Tver. She was not modern at all. Deprived of the advantages of our enlightened society press, without the benefit of our decadent fictional literature, she had lamentably narrow views of life.

She only knew that she loved Paul and that what she wanted was Paul's love to go with her all through her life. She was not self-analytical nor subtle nor given to thinking about her own thoughts. Perhaps she was old-fashioned enough to be romantic.

Catrina hated Etta Sydney Bamforth with a simple, half-barbaric hatred because she had gained the love of Paul Alexis. Etta had taken away from her the only man whom Catrina could ever love all through her life. The girl was simple enough, unsophisticated enough, never to dream of compromise. She never for a moment entertained the cheap, consoling thought that in time she would get over it; she would marry somebody else and make that compromise which is responsible for more misery in this world than ever is vice.

"Where does she live?" asked Catrina.

"In London."

"I wonder," said Catrina, half to herself, "whether she loves you?"

It was a question, but not one that a man can answer. Paul said nothing, but walked gravely on by the side of this woman, who knew that even if Etta Sydney Bamforth should try she could never love him as she herself did.

When Karl Steinmetz joined them they were silent.

"I suppose," he said in English, "that we may rely upon the discretion of the Fraulein Catrina?"

"Yes," answered the girl. "You may, so far as Osterno is concerned. But I would rather that you did not visit our people here. It is too dangerous in several ways."

"Ah!" murmured Steinmetz. "Then we must bow to your decision." He went on, turning toward the tall man striding along at his side.

"Yes," said Paul simply.

"Will you come to the castle?" asked the girl. And Steinmetz by a gesture deferred the decision to Paul.

"I think not tonight, thanks," said the latter. "We will take you as far as the gate."

Catrina made no comment. When the tall gateway was reached she stopped, and they all became aware of the sound of horses' feet behind them.

"What is this?" asked Catrina.

"Only the starosta bringing our horses," replied Steinmetz. "He has discovered nothing."

Catrina nodded and held out her hand.

"Good night," she said rather coldly. "Your secret is safe with me."

QUIETING DOWN

Affairs in Russia Are Gradually Resuming Normal Tone.

GOVERNMENT REFORMS

Emperor Has Sanctioned a Number of Bills Looking to Correction of Administration Evils.

Senate to Be Established on Basis of Closer Connection With the Throne.

Order appears to have been quite generally restored in Russia, the exception being in Poland. Even in Warsaw, however, there has been a return to conditions approximating the normal.

The committee of ministers sitting at St. Petersburg, has formulated and the emperor has sanctioned a number of proposals looking toward the establishment of the senate upon a basis of closer connection with the throne; doing away with the administrative orders suspending certain laws, and in other ways checking the evils that have arisen through the arbitrary acts of ministers or officials. The report that Maxim Gorky has been released is difficult of verification; if the rumor is true the author has probably been requested to leave St. Petersburg immediately.

BOODLE SCANDAL

California Legislature Promises Some Interesting Developments.

Sacramento, Feb. 3.—It is the consensus of opinion among the members of the state senate that the biggest sensation in connection with the bribery scandals remains to be introduced before the special committee that is now conducting the investigation of the accusations against Senators Emmons, Bunker, Wright and French.

DETAILED REPORTS

Show the Action of Imperial Guards on "Bloody Sunday."

St. Petersburg, Feb. 3.—Detailed reports filed at the headquarters of the St. Petersburg military district, where minute records are kept, show that in breaking up the demonstration on Jan. 22, of the thousands of troops on guard only 480 actually fired. Those troops represented eight different units, from a squad of 80 to a company of 120, and the total number of ball cartridges expended was 1,002. The authorities point out that this indicates that there was no reckless or general volleying. The number of wounded in the hospitals today is 208.

The report of Maxim Gorky's release apparently either is incorrect, or if true, he was released on the promise to leave St. Petersburg without the slightest delay. He has not returned home. The friend with whom he lives and who was permitted to visit him yesterday afternoon for the first time since his arrest, said that he found the author still in solitary confinement in the St. Peter and St. Paul fortress. The novelist, whose real name is not Maxim Gorky, which is a pseudonym meaning "Maxim the Bitter," but Alexis Peshkof, did not expect release for some time, and did not know whether he would be brought before the court for trial or deported by administrative order. He philosophically proposed to devote his period of imprisonment to learning the English language and remedying other deficiencies in his peasant's education. He begged his friend to procure text-books of English and German, natural sciences, etc. At present he speaks only Russian.

WAR'S CASUALTIES

The Battle of the Hun Was Costly for Both Sides.

Washington, Feb. 3.—The Japanese legation here has received a report made by Field Marshal Oyama giving the details of the fierce fighting from the 25th to the 29th of Jan. when the Russians were driven to the right of the Hun river. The marshal says that the enemy consisted of the first Siberian army corps, one mixed army corps, the second and fifth brigades of the sharpshooters, part of the ninth army corps, the sixth and first Siberian reserve divisions, some chasseurs, etc., making a total of at least seven divisions, one of which was a cavalry division. The Japanese casualties were about 7,000. Prisoners taken that four regiments of Russian infantry were nearly annihilated. Many of the companies of these regiments were reduced to from twenty to thirty men each. The field marshal expresses the opinion that the Russian casualties must have totaled at least 10,000.

ACROW IS TURBULENT.

Vienna, Feb. 3.—Serious disturbances are reported at Acrow. Last night thousands of workmen gathered at the monument of the poet Wiczelewicz, where Deputy Daszinski, the leader of the Galician Socialists, made a speech denouncing the emperor of Russia, whose portrait was torn amid shouts of vengeance. The police dispersed the demonstration. Fifteen persons were seriously wounded and many were arrested.

WARSAW IS SUBSIDING.

Warsaw, Feb. 4.—Owing to elaborate precautions the disturbances that were anticipated here last evening did not occur. The authorities declare that the strike is practically ended. The smaller manufactories reopened today and the larger ones will open on Monday. The streets are still in the hands of the military. The shops have not yet reopened and the city is quiet and almost deserted.

A USELESS EXPENSE

Senator Lodge Makes Attack on Seed Distribution.

Washington, Feb. 3.—The senate spent much time discussing the distribution of ordinary farm and garden seeds by the agricultural department, the agricultural appropriation bill being under consideration. An attack on the seed distribution custom was made by Mr. Lodge. He and those who stood with him contended that the seeds were of the common varieties to be bought of dealers everywhere, and urged that only rare varieties be supplied free. Their opponents contended that much good was accomplished by the work of the department. Mr. Pettus, the venerable Alabama senator, stood with the latter class and appealed to his fellow "youthful" senators not to forget the days when they enjoyed the violets that grew in the flower-box on the front porch.

The postoffice appropriation bill is still under consideration in the house of representatives. The provision for special mail facilities on trunk lines has been retained in the bill. A mild sensation was created by Mr. Baker of New York, who said that the voting of mail subsidies was the way to kill the Democratic party. Mr. Baker denounced certain members of his party for having foisted Judge Parker on them as their candidate for president, saying that his candidacy had been initiated and manipulated by monopolists.

BOODLE SCANDAL

California Legislature Promises Some Interesting Developments.

Sacramento, Feb. 3.—It is the consensus of opinion among the members of the state senate that the biggest sensation in connection with the bribery scandals remains to be introduced before the special committee that is now conducting the investigation of the accusations against Senators Emmons, Bunker, Wright and French. This opinion seems to be partially borne out through the circulation of a well-defined rumor to the effect that detectives hired by the prosecutors of the suspected statesmen have succeeded in locating some of the marked bills that are said to have been tendered about the city.

Reasonable Doubt Intervened.

Terre Haute, Ind., Feb. 3.—The jury returned a verdict of not guilty in the case of Edward Cooper, the miner, accused of killing Ethel Keeley, with whom he spent the night, and whose dead body was found the next morning. The jury did not like his story of accidental shooting, but ruled that the state had not proved the prisoner guilty beyond a reasonable doubt.

Hoch Held in New York.

New York, Feb. 3.—Johann Hoch was arraigned in Jefferson Market court and remanded until tomorrow, when requisition papers are expected to arrive from Chicago. "This talk about my having twenty or thirty wives and murdering a few of them is all nonsense," he said, while being taken back to police headquarters.

Big Mining Deal.

Danville, Ill., Feb. 3.—The transfer of mining property by Michael Kelly to an eastern syndicate has taken place. The consideration was $3,000,000. The new concern is known as the Kelly Coal company, with W. B. McKinley, a large urban magnate, as general manager.

A Woman's Suicide.

Gosport, N. H., Feb. 3.—Mrs. Cephas Ganger, wife of a farmer, hanged herself in a barn at her home near Milford. She was 40 years of age and an unmarried woman. She had been ill for some time and had been in the hospital for some time.

FIRE IN A LADIES' SCHOOL.

Gloucester, Mass., Feb. 3.—A fire broke out in a ladies' school on Main street at Gloucester, Mass., destroyed property valued at $100,000.

Johann Wannaker, former postmaster general, $1 and may be compelled to give up business for a long time.

AMATEUR STUNNED AND KILLED HER LOVER, JOHN DAVIS, AT VAUGHN, W. VA. JELONSKY IS SAID TO HAVE BEEN THE CAUSE.

President. Mrs. Roosevelt entertained at dinner at the White House Thursday night in honor of the supreme court.

Tired, Nervous Mothers

Make Unhappy Homes—Their Condition Irritates Both Husband and Children—How Thousands of Mothers Have Been Saved From Nervous Prostration and Made Strong and Well.

Mrs. Chester Curry Mrs. Chas. F. Brown

A nervous, irritable mother, often on the verge of hysterics, is unfit to care for children; it ruins a child's disposition and reacts upon herself. The trouble between children and their mothers too often is due to the fact that the mother has some female weakness, and she is entirely unfit to bear the strain upon her nerves that governing children involves; it is impossible for her to do anything calmly.

The ills of women act like a firebrand upon the nerves, consequently nine-tenths of the nervous prostration, nervous despondency, "the blues," sleeplessness, and nervous irritability of women arise from some derangement of the female organism.

Do you experience fits of depression with restlessness, alternating with extreme irritability? Are your spirits easily affected, so that one minute you laugh, and the next minute you feel like crying?

Do you feel something like a ball rising in your throat and threatening to choke you; all the senses perverted, morbidly sensitive to light and sound; pain in the ovaries, and especially between the shoulders; bearing down pains; nervous dyspepsia, and almost continually cross and snappy?

If so, your nerves are in a shattered condition, and you are threatened with nervous prostration.

Proof is monumental that nothing in the world is better for nervous prostration than Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound; thousands and thousands of women testify to this fact.

OFFENSIVE CATARRH

I suffered for a long time with a bad case of Catarrh, and took a great deal of medicine without any benefit. I had a continual headache, my cheeks had grown purple, my nose was always stopped up, my breath had a sickening and disgusting odor, and I coughed incessantly. I heard of your S. S. S. and wrote you. I commenced to use it, and after taking several bottles I was cured and have never since had the slightest symptom of the disease. MISS MARY L. STORM, Cor. 7th & Felix Sts., St. Joseph, Mo.

Wheeling, W. Va., May 29, 1903. I had Nasal Catarrh for years for which I used S. S. S. with very gratifying results. I tried local applications for some time, and getting no permanent relief I came to the conclusion that the seat of the trouble was in the blood. Knowing S. S. S. to be a good blood medicine I began its use, and after using it for some little while it did away entirely with the offensive mucus in the nostrils, and I did not have to hawk and spit, especially in the morning, to dislodge the catarrhal matter. 1627 South St. FRED H. PRESSY.

The filthy secretions and foul mucus that are continually dropping back into the throat, find their way into the stomach and are absorbed into the blood. Catarrh then becomes constitutional, and the only way to get rid of it is through the blood. Write us if you have Catarrh, and our physicians will advise you without charge.

W. E. STIPP, the present county superintendent of Lawrence county, is announced by the Mitchell Commercial as a candidate for superintendent of public instruction. He is a republican.

The manufacturers of proprietary medicines and many druggists who compound some remedies themselves and put them on the market are opposing House bill No. 197 which enacted into law would require that the formula be printed on the label on each bottle. But the probability is that the bill will not pass though there are some strong advocates for its enactment in the legislature.

PURDUE UNIVERSITY through a joint committee of the State Dairy, State Live Stock and the State Corn Growers Associations is asking the legislature for a big appropriation for agricultural experiments. When asked to do this by Purdue authorities these associations should have replied that Purdue was originally founded as an agricultural school and was liberally endowed by the national government and by individuals for that purpose. She also secured $340,000 from the state and a regular state tax is levied to aid in its support. She has besides secured many special appropriations. But the management has diverted her funds from the agricultural department, which should have first consideration, to other departments in an endeavor to teach everything else but that for which the school was founded. These organizations of farmers, composed of as good citizens as can be found anywhere, should insist that Purdue be first of all an agricultural school for which it was established and endowed. Let other departments which were established later, be made secondary and cease diverting funds to them that belong to the agricultural department. Let this be done and it would not be necessary to call upon the taxpayers for an appropriation for agricultural experiments.

Medical Society.

The Jackson Co. Medical Society met in regular session Thursday afternoon Feb. 2nd 1905 in the new Library building. The following members were present: Drs. Barnes, May, Gerish, Kamman, Osterman, Hill, Washburn and Ritter. Dr. Gerrish read a paper on Cholelithiasis. The paper was a good one in which he spoke of the subject quite fully. The paper was freely discussed and finally ordered sent to the State Medical Association for publication. Dr. Nelson Harrod, of Tampico, was elected to membership of the society, after which the society adjourned.

Two Wrecks.

There was a wreck of some freight cars at Medora today piling up and turning over several cars and delaying trains some time.

There was also a wreck on the west end of the line early this morning which caused No. 4 to be several hours late. No one is reported hurt in either wreck.

Trustees Troubles.

For several days there have been rumors about a muddle in the affairs of Redding township, involving the final report of the outgoing trustee. Members of the advisory board are not fully satisfied with the showing made and have been investigating. It is said that a law suit may follow but no suit has been filed. Then the official bondsmen of the new trustee have asked to be released which makes it necessary for him to fill a new bond.

The Senator's Side of It.

Washington, Feb. 3.—Senator John H. Mitchell of Oregon, who was indicted by the United States grand jury at Portland for bribery in connection with the land fraud investigation, has made a statement in which he says he welcomes the most searching investigation of the charges against him and asserts that only "misconstrued innocent acts" and "unwarranted inferences" can connect him with the land frauds.

Troops Will Remain.

Manila, Feb. 3.—Governor General Wright, accompanied by the native members of the Philippine commission, visited Cavite, capital of the province of Cavite, and held a conference with all the presidents of the province. After the conference the governor general announced that the federal troops would remain in the disturbed area until all the bandit hide-outs had been captured.

The Woman of About Thirty.

When one knows the age of a woman one knows the woman. The very fact that she permits you to know her age exposes her character. She no longer masquerades. She has lost a certain uncertainty, an enigmatic delicacy, that was an irresistible charm. Women, like philosophy, are divided into two classes, the knowable and the unknowable. Also like philosophy, it is the unknowable woman who is the spectacle. Therefore to get her at her highest capacity she must be unmarried and about thirty.

The married woman presents certain inescapable telltale data. She has children, and those children have apparent ages, two facts which go far in determining her annals. If she is unmarried and is not "about thirty" she is under thirty, again a definite fact. Being "about thirty" is indefinite. She may be more or less. No one hazards a guess. There is a delightful vagueness in being "about thirty." It has nothing to do with dates, and many of us who from our youth up have felt no attachment for dates can forgive the unattached their confessed indifference.—Philadelphia Inquirer.

AFTER SICKNESS

Vinol is a Wonderful Tonic and Strengtheners.

W. F. Peter Drug Co. Refund Money in All Cases Where it Fails to Give Satisfaction.

"During the past few months there has been a great deal of sickness of one kind and another in this vicinity," said Mr. Peter of the W. F. Peter Drug Co., and I want to say to the people of Seymour that the one thing to aid recovery after sickness is to give the patient a blood building and strength restoring tonic, one that will give strength to every organ in the body.

"Now," continued Mr. Peter, "I don't believe there is another remedy in the country equal to our delicious cod liver oil preparation, Vinol, for making pure, rich, red blood and building up strength. I say this from an intimate knowledge of almost every medicine on the market, and after considering what Vinol is and has done.

"Vinol contains every one of the body-building, medicinal elements of cod liver oil, without one drop of oil to upset the stomach and retard its work, and this with organic iron, which is a needful constituent for the blood, dissolved in a delicious table wine, makes Vinol. It acts directly on the stomach, creates a healthy appetite, and enables the digestive organs to obtain the necessary elements from the food eaten to make rich, red blood, and healthy flesh and muscle tissue, and create strength, and you know what you are taking."

Continued Mr. Peter, "We have a good many letters like the following: Mr. A. Manser of Poughkeepsie, N. Y., writes: 'A severe fever left me in a very weak condition, and no matter what I took I could not seem to get any strength, until through a friend I learned of Vinol. Two bottles worked wonders for me, so quickly did it restore my health and strength, and I am fast gaining in weight. Vinol is a wonderful strength creator.'

"In the strongest manner we unhesitatingly endorse and guarantee Vinol to increase the appetite, cure stomach troubles, give strength and renewed vitality to the aged, build up the run down, tired and debilitated and restore health to the convalescent or we will return every dollar paid us for it." POLITICAL GOSSIP

Some of the Things Heard Around Edges of Legislature.

Indianapolis, Feb. 3.—There has been less political talk around the edges this session of the legislature than expected. Of course there is a little wire-pulling going on, but it is not so extensive as might be looked for when there are so many men in the Republican party aspiring to serve the state in some capacity. One frequently hears Hugh T. Miller, the genial lieutenant governor, mentioned as gubernatorial timber. Senator Goodwine of Williamsport is mentioned in the same category. On the first floor of the statehouse one hears it hinted that Attorney General Miller, Union Banner Hunt and Treasurer Nat U. Hill may enter the gubernatorial race. All are being groomed by their friends, whether or not they have any intention of trying for the high honor. E. E. Neal of Noblesville is an active candidate for clerk of the supreme court, and John Billheimer, deputy auditor, may try to succeed David E. Sherrick, his present chief.

Representative Sayre of Wabash, who generally presides over the house in the absence of Speaker Cantwell, who frequently takes a rest in order to withstand the strain, is keeping up his reputation as a wit. A son was born to Representative Brunaugh of this city and one member offered a resolution extending the congratulations of the house and appointing three members to name the baby. "The resolution is not properly worded," remarked Speaker Sayre. "Since no official notice of the baby was given to the house yesterday, the resolution is out of order unless Representative Brunaugh has twins." The resolution was thus disposed of and everyone enjoyed a good laugh at the veteran member's ready reply.

Governor J. Frank Hanly is still confined to his rooms at the Claypool hotel and will probably not resume his official duties at the statehouse till the first of next week, as his physician does not want him to venture outside before then. His condition is not serious, as he is only one of the numerous victims of the gripe, which is now epidemic here. He has had a close call with pneumonia, and while he is a man of very robust physique and excellent habits, he did not care to take any chances of making his condition worse. This will be a hard session with him, as the bills will soon be coming down in big bunches for his inspection.

As expected, the ways and means committee of the house reported for indefinite postponement Representative Seifres' bill authorizing the governor to borrow $1,000,000 to cover an alleged deficit in the state treasury. The bill caused considerable amusement when it was presented, but Mr. Seifres insisted that he was acting in perfect good faith. The confusion as to the real condition of the treasury was due largely to the different constructions placed on Governor Durbin's biennial message and Governor Hanly's inaugural address. The state is not "flush," but it is not "broke" by any means.

Representative Agar of Princeton has introduced a bill to abolish the codification commission at once, which again calls the attention of the public to the fact that over half of the session is gone and none of the codification bills which the commission has spent two years preparing, is advanced as far as second reading in either the house or the senate. The expense of the commission to the state has already reached almost $20,000, and as important as the work is, there still seems to be a disposition to shift the responsibility to another general assembly.

Editors Elect Officers.

Indianapolis, Feb. 3.—The meeting of the Indiana Democratic Editorial association, which closed here last evening, was one of the most largely attended and interesting in the history of that body. The following officers were elected: President, L. G. Ellingham of the Decatur Democrat; first vice president, E. E. Cox, News and Telegraph of Hartford City; second vice president, A. B. Crampton of the Delphi Citizen; secretary, W. S. Chambers, Newcastle Democrat; treasurer, A. D. Moffett, of the Elwood Record.

Stolen Kiss Cost Him $12.

New Castle, Ind., Feb. 3.—Grant Gordon called at the home of Mrs. Arthur Thomas, a bride of six months, at New Lisbon, and forcibly seized and kissed her as she was leaving the house. He hastily decamped from the town, but as he alighted from a train in this city he was arrested by the sheriff, and was fined $12 for provocation.

Old Soldier's Fatal Fall.

Washington, Ind., Feb. 3.—Peter McGinnis, a veteran of the civil war, fell off a ten-foot embankment from his yard to the street below, and lay for four hours before his condition attracted attention. He suffered concussion of the brain and died shortly after a physician was called.

Sentenced on Bribery Charge.

Brazil, Ind., Feb. 3.—Early Phillips, a well-to-do coal man, who was arrested several days ago charged with attempting to bribe a juror, was found guilty, fined $250, and was sentenced to jail for ten days.

Lemburg, Feb. 3.—Thousands of workmen engaged in a demonstration against the emperor of Russia.

CITY COUNCIL.

Business Disposed of at Session Last Night.

The city council met in regular session last night. Mayor Graessle was in the chair and all councilmen were around the semi-circle. Clerk Everback read the minutes of the last meeting which were adopted.

The special committee appointed to investigate the charges against the street commissioner, alleging impartiality in the employment of men on the street was given more time to complete report.

Chairman Mills of the building committee submitted letters from architects, Dunlap and Royer as to what their charges would be if employed to make plans and superintend construction of new city building. Each one stated that the charge for making plans and superintending construction of building would be 5 per cent, of what building would cost, or 2 1/2 per cent for plans only.

A motion to employ Elmer E. Dunlap as the architect was adopted. He is to perfect plans according to the ideas of the building committee and the same are to be submitted to the council for approval. Mr. Dunlap was called from the hotel and to the council stated he would be at the service of the building committee and the council any time and would render all the service possible. A conference was held with him after council meeting.

The clerk read a communication from Henry Heckman who proffered to sell the city 20 feet of ground on Chestnut street next to what the city now owns for $2,000 or he would sell 45 feet for a lower price per front foot. Referred to the building committee.

The street commissioner made a report of work done by him the past two weeks.

The clerk read a communication from the Hygiene Milling Company in which attention was called to an error in the assessment of the Company's plant and asked that the same be corrected. The plant was assessed at $10,000 for 1903 taxes while before and since the assessment was $2,320 which is about as other property is assessed in the city. The council instructed the treasurer to take into account the error in assessment and rebate the company accordingly.

On motion of Huber the unused part of East Side Park was rented to Chris Moritz for $25, the amount he paid for it last year.

The building committee was instructed to proceed at once with the plans and specifications for the new fire department building. Mayor Graessle was added to the committee.

On motion of Miller a shooting gallery to be conducted in the Leininger room on Second Street was licensed at $2.50 a month.

Dr. Kamman, the health officer, reported that during the month of January there were ten births and eleven deaths in the city. During the month there were six cases of scarlet fever in the city.

A Touching Story

is the saving from death, of the baby girl of Geo. A. Byller, Cumberland, Md. He writes: "At the age of 11 months, our little girl was in declining health, with serious throat trouble, and two physicians gave her up. We were almost in despair, when we resolved to try Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs and colds. The first bottle gave relief; after taking four bottles she was cured, and is now in perfect health." Never fails to relieve and cure a cough or cold. At W. F. TREASURY DEPARTMENT, OFFICE OF COMPTROLLER OF THE CURRENCY. WASHINGTON, Feb. 1, 1905.

Whereas, by satisfactory evidence presented to the undersigned, it has been made to appear that "The First National Bank of Seymour," in the city of Seymour in the county of Jackson, and state of Indiana, has complied with all the provisions of the Act of Congress to enable National Banking Associations to extend their corporate existence, and for other "purposes," approved July 12, 1882, as amended by the Act approved April 12, 1902.

Now, therefore, I, William B. Ridgely, Comptroller of the Currency, do hereby certify that "The First National Bank of Seymour," located in the City of Seymour, in the county of Jackson, and state of Indiana, is authorized to have succession for the period specified in its amended articles of association; namely, until close of business on February 1, 1925.

In testimony whereof witness my hand and seal of office this first day of February, 1905.

A Queer Relationship.

Two men with their two wives and two sons stands thus related to each other. The men are each others fathers and sons, their wives' father and husband and their children's fathers and grandfathers; the women are the children's mothers and sisters and the boys are uncles to each other. How can this be and yet the parties be lawfully married? Figure out this odd relationship.

No Better.

The condition of Senator Schneck today continues about the same as yesterday, except that he seems to be a little weaker. His condition is very critical. A prominent physician was here from Cincinnati last night in consultation with Dr. Graessle and Dr. Severinghaus in the case.

Temperance Meetings.

Next Sunday Morning at 10:30, U. G. Humphrey, president of the Anti-Saloon League, will speak at the First M. E. church. In the afternoon at 3:30 o'clock he and Rev. J. F. Lewis will address a union meeting at the Methodist church. At 7:30 Sunday night Mr. Humphrey will speak at the Central Christian church.

Quarterly Meeting.

The second quarterly meeting of the First M. E. church will be held next Sunday. Presiding Elder J. M. Baxter will preach at the evening service at 7 o'clock and administer the sacrament. On Monday evening at 7:30 the quarterly conference will be held.

Social Club Dance.

The dance given last night by the K. of P. Social Club was quite a success. More than a hundred were present and dancing continued until about 1:30. Music was furnished by the Barkman orchestra.

Are Patent Medicines Frauds?

Many Druggists Asked the Above Question.

W. F. Peter Drug Co. Says—"No."

When asked the above question, Mr. Peter of W. F. Peter Drug Co. contended that nothing that gave satisfactory results could be fraudulent. "Do you believe," says Mr. Peter "That we could afford to sell you something you don't want or that will not give satisfaction? Our business depends on pleased customers—in fact any business does. Therefore, we would take an enormous risk did we not fulfill every promise made our customers. We are very careful of what we guarantee, and when we do guarantee an article we must know it pretty well—what it contains and how it is made. I have in mind the Rexall line of remedies, particularly Rexall Mucu-Tone, of which we are selling large quantities at this time of the year. Mucu-Tone is one article that we can recommend over our counter, and know that ninety-eight per cent of its purchasers are going to be benefited and will return to our store pleased customers. Mucu-Tone is a positive cure for internal scrofula or what is commonly called Catarrh. It is without a doubt the peer of all tonics for anyone who is suffering from a run-down condition, can't work, feel constantly tired or suffering from the more plainly described symptoms of Catarrh—such as stopping of the nose, cold in the head or bad cough."

"It must be remembered that Catarrh is not confined to the nose and throat. It usually starts there but it leads more often to serious trouble, particularly the wasting of tissues, as in the case of little Miss Dillon, of Albany. Here is a letter from her father:"

"My little girl had catarrh so badly that the disease had begun to eat into the cartilage of her nose. Snuffs and instruments failed to do more than give temporary relief. I saw the advertisement of Mucu-Tone, but I could not believe that anything taken in the stomach could cure the sore membranes of the nose. However, I took advantage of your free trial offer and my girl began taking your remedy according to directions. I want to say right here that Mucu-Tone is certainly the greatest medical discovery of the times and to thank you for the liberal offer that first induced me to give it a trial. Mucu-Tone has cured my daughter's catarrh completely. The discharge has stopped altogether and her breath is as sweet as can be. Again thanking you, Matt. Dillon, 24 N. Swan Street, Albany, N. Y."

W. F. Peter Drug Co. are selling a large trial bottle of Mucu-Tone for fifty cents on the famous Rexall guarantee of your money back if you are not satisfied. They promise that one bottle will put flesh on your bones and bring new vitality to your system.

Presbyterian Church.

Rev. J. F. Lewis, one of the Field Secretaries of the Indiana Anti-Saloon League, will occupy the pulpit at the Presbyterian Church on next Sunday morning.

$100 Reward, $100.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address: F. J. CHENEY & Co., Toledo, O. Sold by druggists, 75c. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

Amendment Proposed.

In connection with Senator Will Wood's garnishee bill he has also introduced another bill providing for an amendment of Section 14 of an act entitled "An act providing for a homestead, and exempting it from sale on execution, etc."

The proposed amendment would make the section read as follows: "The exemption under this act shall not effect any laborer's or mechanic's lien nor lien for the purchase of the real property exempted, nor exempt any property from taxation or from sale for taxes, nor to exempt twenty-five per cent of wages, fees, or income of any person for debt on account of necessities or labor performed, unless such person is relieved by disability from the payment thereof as provided by law."

A MAN'S APPEARANCE

Counts for much today. If he is in different about it he receives little consideration. While clothes do not make a man, they do mark the man. When with little expense an old garment can be made to look new why spare the change? Have you ever experienced the sense of cleanliness and freshness when putting on a newly renovated and pressed suit of clothes and overcoat? If not, try it, and try it again and soon, the habit will become fixed and you be marked as a neat well-dressed up-to-the minute man.

Welthoff is the man who can do this for you at little expense. THE OLD RELIABLE PLACE, 113 N. Chestnut St.

Thousands Have Kidney Trouble and Never Suspect it.

How To Find Out.

Fill a bottle of common glass with your water and let it stand twenty-four hours; ascending and descending indicates an unhealthy condition of the kidneys; if it stains your linen it is evidence of kidney trouble; too frequent desire to pass it or pain in the back is also convincing proof that the kidneys and bladder are out of order.

What To Do.
There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy, fulfills every wish in curing rheumatism, pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage. It corrects inability to hold water and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often during the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar sizes. You may have a sample bottle and a book that tells all about it, both sent free by mail. Address Dr. W. H. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When you write mention this paper and don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y.

SPARED FROM GALLOWES

Governor of Vermont Gives Mary Rogers a Reprieve.

Windsor, Vt., Feb. 3.—A few hours after receiving the last rites of the Catholic church and hearing her father confessor read the prayers for the dying, Mrs. Mabel Rogers, who was sentenced to die upon the gallows this afternoon, listened with amazement to the announcement of Sheriff Henry H. Peck that Governor Charles J. Bell had granted her a reprieve of four months.

The news from Montpelier that the governor had consented to defer the execution of Mrs. Rogers came as a surprise not only to the condemned woman, but also to the sheriff, his deputies and the prison officials, as it had been generally accepted that the governor would refuse to interfere.

Preparations for the execution had been perfected. The gallows had been erected in the west wing of the prison, a heavy black curtain hanging from the guard room windows shutting the gruesome machinery of death from the public view. When the news of Gov. Bell's action was carried to the prison the officials hesitated to believe the announcement until Gov. Bell called up E. W. Oaks, the prison superintendent by long distance telephone and formally notified him that Mrs. Rogers had been granted a reprieve, that her claim to not having had a fair trial might be passed upon by the supreme court.

Sheriff Peck carried the news of the reprieve to the prisoner.

Moral Crusade at Allegheny.

Pittsburg, Feb. 3.—The grand jury has found true bills against sixty-two women and gamblers of Allegheny. The cases are incidental to the "graft" investigation in that city, and it is said by the prosecutors that many prominent officials will be involved before the crusade is ended.

A WOMAN'S BACK.

The Aches and Pains Will Disappear If The Advice Of This Seymour Citizen Is Followed.

A woman's back has many aches and pains.

Most times 'tis the kidneys' fault. Backache is really kidney ache. That's why Doan's Kidney Pills cure this.

Many Seymour women know this. Read what one has to say about it: Mrs. S. A. Gibson, of 306 East Second street, says: "As far as my experience with Doan's Kidney Pills is concerned I can highly recommend them. I was troubled with pains over the loins and my back was weak and aching. I also had depressing headaches, pains in the back of my neck, was nervous and restless nights and morning felt more exhausted than when I went to bed. Doan's Kidney Pills cured me of all these symptoms. I found them very easy to take and they caused no inconvenience while their quick and positive action gratified me highly."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-McLure Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name Doan's and take no other.

Prevent As Well As Cure Headache

If subject to headache, take Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills when you feel the first indication of an attack, and you will find that they rarely ever fail to stop further progress.

Pain weakens the nerves, and the longer you suffer, the more frequent will be the attacks.

On the contrary, if the nerves are relieved of this weakening influence, the attacks will be less frequent, and finally disappear altogether.

Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills contain no opium, cocaine, morphine or chloral in any form. They are absolutely harmless if taken as directed, and will have no other effect, except to drive out the pain.

"Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills are all right, and I can recommend them to any one in need of a remedy for headache, neuralgia, or pain of any kind. My health is not very good, and I am subject to frequent attacks of severe headache, but since I began taking Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills I do not suffer from that trouble as I used to. They never fail to give relief in a few minutes, and if taken promptly on the approach of headache will prevent an attack from coming on. Pain Pills prevent, as well as cure."

MRS. WM. W. MEDRICK, Gloucester, N. Y.
Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills are sold by your druggist, who will guarantee that the first package will benefit. If it fails he will return your money. 25 doses, 25 cents. Never sold in bulk. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind.

THE GUIRL BILL

This Is Today's Subject of Interest In the House.

CROWD OF SPECTATORS

Legislation in the Interests of Temperance Reform Attracts Much Attention.

The Moore Bill Passed the Senate by the Decisive Vote of 29.

Indianapolis, Feb. 3.—The fight for temperance reform shifted from the senate to the house today, the Guirl bill, making one remonstrance stand against all applicants for two years, being made a special order of business.

There was a large crowd of spectators in the house. Representative Guirl indicated this morning that he was willing to have the Moore bill, which yesterday passed the senate by a vote of 29 to 18, and which amends the Nicholson law so as to make remonstrances good for two years, substituted for his.

The senate is now wrangling over the Wood garnishee bills. Many petitions favoring them are being received, but the bills will not be passed. One has been killed and the other advanced to second reading so it may be printed.

A bill changing the date of the city elections at Evansville from April to November has been passed by the senate. Representative Bateman's bill for prohibiting a general revision of schoolbooks in a period of less than ten years passed the house by a big majority, although a majority of the committee to which it was referred reported it for indefinite postponement. It was a big personal victory for the member from Bloomington.

Representative Agar tried to suspend the rules and abolish the codification commission, but failed. The ways and means committee reported against bills for appropriations for monuments to Indiana soldiers at Gettysburg, Andersonville and Vicksburg. The excuse was that the state is not in a position this year to furnish the money. The committee also decided against the bills raising the limit for mortgage exemptions, lest it would be made necessary on account of their passage to increase the tax levy.

A bill for a state orphan's home for colored children was indefinitely postponed. Ruick's original Sunday baseball bill was indefinitely postponed, but his other bill to accomplish the same purpose is still in the hands of the committee.

Bills of general interest introduced in the house: To require license for selling of patent medicine and drugs on streets; providing corner's fees in counties where no salary is paid shall be $10 for first day and $5 for following days of actual service; to give state right of appeal in misdemeanor cases; to abolish codification commission; regulating practice of commissioners' court hearing liquor license remonstrances; to abolish transient officers, except in towns of more than $3,000, where schoolboards shall appoint such officer; regulating justices of the peace and providing for moral and educational qualifications.

Bills of general interest introduced in the senate: Authorizing a light, heat and power company to sell its plant to any other corporation having power to purchase same; providing for a $1,200 instead of a $700 mortgage exemption, and making it applicable to personal property as well as real estate; providing for an assistant superintendent of public instruction; giving the governor power to appoint special police officers at the request of railroads; providing that a person may hunt on his own property without a game commissioners' license.

HELD TO ANSWER

Former City Treasurer of Brazil Held on Embezzlement Charge.

Brazil, Ind., Feb. 3.—D. H. Cutshall, city treasurer, was arrested on grand jury indictments charging him with embezzling funds belonging to the city during the three terms he served as city treasurer. Four indictments were returned, and it is asserted that the prosecution will be able to show the defalcation even larger than embraced in the several counts. One year, as alleged under the indictment, shows a shortage of $2,700; another, $300; a third, $200, and still another $180. Mr. Cutshall laughed when he was placed under arrest and good-naturedly remarked that he would have an inning later. His brothers volunteered as surety, and the defendant was released.

Despondent Over Reverses.

Wheatland, Ind., Feb. 3.—Stephen H. B. Clinton, dealer in furniture, committed suicide with a bullet through his brain, the result of despondency over his financial condition. He carried several thousand dollars' life insurance, which will cover his indebtedness. Mr. Clinton was secretary of the local lodges of Modern Woodmen and Knights of Honor, and it is alleged that he used funds belonging to these orders. He leaves a widow and three children.
